

THE SALT LAKE HERALD
Salt Lake City, - - Utah.

WEDNESDAY - - - November 7, 1888

LOCAL BRIEFS.

T. P. JONES & Co. received yesterday: Germania edition, $1,512.11; ores, $4,056.82. Total, $5,568.93.

Wells, Fargo & Co.'s shipments yesterday were: Ore, $1,000; base bullion, $2,000. Total, $3,000.

McCormick & Co. received yesterday: Hammer bullion, $4,200; silver and lead ores, $7,100. Total, $11,300.

The saloons were closed yesterday, in accordance with the Territorial law on the subject. All were in full blast, however, after the polls closed.

There was a slight blaze yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Pierce, who lives in the Tenth Ward. A defective flue was the cause. Damage nominal.

The Iowa Exposition is being agitated. It is more than probable that if the Chamber of Commerce does not take the matter up, a syndicate will be formed for the purpose of carrying out the scheme.

John Reid, for many years an employee at Leadville, left yesterday on a mission to the Southern States. Prior to his departure his fellow employees from the smallest cash boy to the tallest clerk united in giving him a purse of something like $100 as a testimonial of esteem.

P. W. Madsen & Co. have purchased the piece of property on the corner of First South and Commercial Streets, opposite Nystrom's new building. They have twenty-seven feet front by 90 back all of which, except a few feet in the rear, will be covered by a fine three-story brick building, and which will be used by the firm as an elegant store.

G. D. Adams the butcher, at 69 East Second South, authorized THE HERALD to say that if Harrison is elected, he will distribute to four-pound pieces to the poor of Salt Lake, a 500-pound steer at his establishment from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday. Mr. Adams claims, too, that he always was a Democrat, but westerners, he said, should be Republicans.

The sociable and reception tendered O. D. Romney, who was recently called on a mission to New Zealand, at the Twentieth Ward school rooms, Monday evening, was a very successful and enjoyable affair. A fine musical programme was provided, and that being concluded the young ladies of the ward passed around a very tempting collation, which was partaken of with much zest and hearty merriment.

A SPANIARD named Jesus Salvador left a Main Street saloon at about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, in company with another man. An hour later, he returned and reported that his companion had relieved him of all the money he had on his person, with a slight shot, or some similar instrument. No arrest had been made up to a late hour last evening.

MR. ART YOUNG, of this city, who went to Idaho some years ago, has returned to Salt Lake very much the better off for his trip. He held a large interest in the Cariboo placers, and received as his share of the recent sale he manipulated, $15,000 in cash, with a good-sized block of stock in the company. Mr. Young at once turned his $15,000 into an elegant home, paying that amount for the residence of Mrs. Emily Clawson, just north of the Eagle Gate, where he is now ensconced with his family. He still holds an interest in several Cariboo properties, of which he has high hopes.

PERSONAL.

W. W. RITER goes to Tintic this morning.

WM. STEWART came down from Kaysville yesterday.

JOHN R. BARNES of Kaysville, was in town on Tuesday.

WILL STAFFORD, of the White House, has returned from his trip to his old home in Canada.

D. H. FREY was down from Ogden yesterday. He cast his vote for Jno. T. Caine before leaving.

DAVID CANDIANO is up from Sanpete. He was called here on account of the illness of his son, Victor, who is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

LIEUTENANT CARROLL VANCE, Sixteenth Infantry, West Point '83, has been in this city for a couple of days on his way to Fort DuChesne, where he is doomed to remain during the winter.

Election Bulletins.

The Occidental will receive all bulletins of the Presidential election.

AVER &amp; MURPHY.

Delicious Warm Beverages. Those decoctions served to the thirsty and cold at the Occidental are delicious, pure and superior. First-class wines, liquors, beers, ales and cigars. Family supplies a specialty.

AVER &amp; MURPHY, Proprietors.

We are willing to bear personal testimony to the efficacy and value of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which we have been advertising some years in our paper, having used it for blood impurities with great success. It is a preparation of standard merit, made of perfectly pure ingredients, and thoroughly effective in cleansing and purifying the system. For eruptions, boils, etc., it can be relied upon every time. Our own experience with it has been most gratifying, and we are glad to give it this endorsement. - Athol (Mass.) Transcript.

THE LOCAL ELECTION.

Hon. John T. Caine Re-Elected
Delegate to Congress

BY THE USUAL MAJORITIES.

Local Interest in the Presidential Election—The Bulletin and the Demonstrations.

The Presidential election seems to have been of such overwhelming interest yesterday that people gathered around the various bulletins or discussed the news in groups on the streets instead of going to the polls and casting their votes for Delegate to Congress. The muddy streets and chilly air kept many at home and prevented the congregation of large crowds around the polls.

There was no excitement at any of the polling places. All was good order, and so far no crookedness was attempted on any side.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

had the Opera House band out in Grant Bros' big drag "Utah." On the sides of the drag were immense banners on which were painted, "Vote for Hon. John T. Caine." From the front floated a big American flag. The People also had out dozens of vehicles, and were well prepared to carry to the polls all who wanted to vote.

Late in the afternoon the Opera House band went in the drag to the residence of Hon. John T. Caine and tendered the re-elected Delegate a charming serenade. Mr. Caine appeared and in a neat speech thanked the gentlemen for their music. Before leaving, the band gave a rousing three cheers for Utah's new Delegate.

THE SAGEBRUSH DEMOCRATS.

had banners on the streets with pictures of Cleveland and Thurman on them, to the staffs of which were attached big bunches of sagebrush, and had men at all the polls to look after their interests.

THE LIBERALS.

had convergences on the streets covered with Baskin banners, and had their rustlers working hard at the polls, but as the results show this was all to no avail.

OUTSIDE THE CITY.

What returns have been so far received from the outside precincts show nothing of especial interest. The vote is, as usual, practically unanimous for Hon. John T. Caine, except in the mining camps, which are the Liberal strongholds. The Sagebrushers made no heavy draft upon either of the old parties.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

Great Excitement on the Streets—Around the Bulletin Boards.

The interest in the Presidential election ran high all day long. There was a good deal of excitement during the day and it increased during the evening, and as midnight approached and the news began to be more definite, the crowds about the bulletin boards began to thin out, and Cleveland men looked gloomy while Harrison's backers were jubilant and full.

Dozens of private telegrams were received (or claimed to have been received) of every imaginable shade and color and as many different men were happy, dubious or hopelessly blue as the respective dispatches happened to justify or force.

All the newspapers, the hotel bars and many of the saloons gave their bulletins as fast as they came, and there was not a moment during the day or night that these harbingers of joy or despair were not read by crowds of anxious citizens. In the evening there was a bonfire burning on Second South Street, though it was not a sign of rejoicing on either side, but on the other hand was simply a means of keeping the bodies of Democrats warm, and thawing out the spirits of Republicans. The saloons had not been opened three hours before every man that was drunk enough was yelling "Ball for Harrison," but long before morning free whisky proved too much for their spirits and they sank into inebriated desuetude.

At midnight things looked a little blue for the Democrats, but they all console themselves with the historical fact that the early dispatches are always Republican and with the fact that he who laughs last laughs best.

NOTES LOCAL AND GENERAL.

All who visited the Tribune office came to THE HERALD office to verify what they saw or heard there.

The Federal officials were all on the anxious seat last night, and none were more hungry than they for news from the east.

A MINISTERING angel in the person of Doc Faust remembered the weary staff of THE HERALD last night with a big platter of hot oysters.

Those who bet that Thurman, the Sagebrush nominee for Delegate, would poll as heavy a vote as Baskin felt very weary last evening.

THE HERALD showed up all the returns on a big canvas and large crowds gathered around and cheered who ever the bulletins showed Democratic gains.

THE HERALD's lantern man filled in the intervals between the coming of the returns with reflections of President and Mrs. Cleveland. These brought out loud applause.

If it turns out that Cleveland is again to occupy the Presidential chair, the streets of Salt Lake will to-night flash and glare with the light of bon fires and boom with the roar of cannon as they did four years ago.

AN INDIVIDUAL who had absorbed too much election juice fell through one of the large windows of Crouch's book bindery, next to the Tribune office, last evening. He escaped unhurt, and had not been apprehended up to a late hour.

All the prominent citizens either telephoned or called at THE HERALD office for correct returns. Among others were J. L. Kewling, A. Smith, Secretary Hall, M. B. Sowles, Mr. Cassidy, F. W. Jennings, Judge Pyper, Lieutenant Young and other officers, H. M. Wells, S. A. Kenner, T. J. McIntosh, Col. John R. Winder.

THE SENSATION of the day, after the election has been definitely settled, will be the fulfillment of a contract entered into by Ben Whittemore and Dan Rench. The agreement is to this effect: Rench bets on Cleveland, Whittemore on Harrison. The loser will pull the winner from the Deceit News corner to the Cliff House in a handsomely decorated cart, on some day to be hereafter agreed upon, between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock. Two banners will accompany the procession, one on either side of the street. Armed with locked tin boxes, two men will canvass both sides of Main Street, soliciting subscriptions for charitable purposes.

NOT TO BE CENTRIELY OUTDONE, the inmates of the Penitentiary held an election yesterday, for President of the United States. Early in the morning, two banners were prepared, one bearing the legend "Harrison and Protection," the other "Cleveland and Free Trade." These were carried around for some time, and at about 2 p.m. the polls were opened. The toughs entered a loud protest against any of the Mormons voting, but finally decided to adopt the policy that has heretofore been so successful—"counting out."

A few days, however, they relinquished that idea, and when the votes were counted, they showed a majority of 9 for Cleveland and Thurman.

For Nervousness

USE HOBBS' ACID PHOSPHATE.

Dr. C. C. HANSCONE, Minneapolis, Minn., says: "I used it in a case of acute rheumatism, during convalescence; the particular symptoms I wished to relieve were sleeplessness and nervousness, and the results were all I desired."

Utah Central Railway—Notice to Passengers.

The northbound freight trains advertised to leave Salt Lake City at 8.45 a.m. and 5.45 p.m., will not run on regular time for a few days, and passengers are hereby notified to depend only on regular passenger trains.

RANRATT BROS

Epoch

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agony whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health, to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at A. O. Smith & Co.'s drug store.

A Return to Duty.

This is always desirable, and the speedier it takes place the better. Doubly welcome is it in the case of those usually industrious little organs, the kidneys, which, when they go on a strike—so to speak—and drop work, seriously imperil health in more than one way. First and foremost, their inaction begets their disease, which is hydra-headed, including such dangerous maladies as Bright's disease and diabetes. Next, when inactive they fail to assist in removing from the blood impurities that beget rheumatism, gout and dropsy. Third, their inaction weakens the bladder. All this is preventable and remediable by the pleasant promoter of organic action, Hostetter's Kidney Bitters, at once a tonic and a regulator. This gently but effectively impels the kidneys to return to duty, and strengthens them and the bladder. Upon the bowels, stomach and liver it likewise exerts a regulating and invigorating influence, and it strengthens the system, and averts and remedies malaria and rheumatism.

A NEW SCHEME.

The Salt Lake Oil Company are now ready for business. They have two new magnificent iron tank oil wagons, from which Gasoline and Coal Oil will be sold in quantities from one pint upwards, and delivered free of charge. Regular routes are being established, which will be covered daily. Patrons are furnished with Large Cards, which are hung out when Oil is needed. The convenience of the scheme can hardly be overestimated, and we predict a huge success for the enterprise. Leave orders at No. 7 E. Second South, (at Shiley, Groschell & Co's Office) Telephone No. 82. JAMES W. Lusk, Manager.

LADIES' plush wraps just received at C. M. DONNELSON & Co's.

REAL ESTATE AUCTION.

Seventy-eight lots will be sold at auction next Saturday evening at 7 p.m. in front of the Postoffice. These lots are located on Third North and Seventh West Streets. Lots are twenty-five and thirty feet wide each by 120 feet deep with an alley in the rear. Each lot is guaranteed to lay high and dry. Messrs. Lynch & Glassman are now sinking two artesian wells on their addition, and each person buying lots shall have free use of the water. The lots are nicely located and it would be worth while for parties wishing cheap homes to call and see these lots as Lynch & Glassman's addition is almost surrounded by dwellings; remember these lots are in the city—only one block west of the D. & R. G. track. Come to the auction and get a lot at your own price, next Saturday evening.

DURGIN, Auctioneer.

WOOD MANTLES, a fine line, at DISWOOD'S.

EPOCH PRATT, who gave to Baltimore the free library that bears his distinguished name, recently entered upon his 81st year, hale and vigorous in body and mind. Mr. Pratt, whose name will be linked with that of John Hopkins as a benefactor, did not wait for the uncertain operation of a will, but gave the library building and the ground it stands on (valued at $250,000) and his personal check for nearly $200,000, to the City of Baltimore, agreeing to give $50,000 a year for the support of the institution, which has had the incalculable advantage of his personal guidance thus far.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

DETROIT can be proud of Joseph L. Hudson, and not make any mistake about it. In 1875, the clothing firm of R. Hudson & Son, one of the largest in Michigan, compromised with its creditors and paid 60 cents on the dollar. Not long after the failure, the old gentleman died, and Joseph L. Hudson, the son, carried the business forward as well as he could. He soon proved that there was the right business motto in him. He gradually stood on solid ground again, and now, after twelve years, has paid every dollar of the 40 per cent. indebtedness—something over $20,000—of the original firm. He has paid interest money, too, on all the sums since the date of the failure, and gone to no end of trouble besides to seek the creditors out, east and west. He has just paid the last debt, that of a poor widow in New York City, who was the last to be found and returned to his home completely happy. No one would predict now that his business will not double in a year.

BEFORE Christianity entered India, lepers were treated with shocking inhumanity. Many of them were buried alive. The English rulers have put a stop to this custom, and for fourteen years there has been a special Christian mission to the 135,000 lepers in India.

Marks and Faces.

The features enameled by the famous Parisian artists were simply masked; the pores were closed, and the whole face converted into a piece of animated porcelain. Such is not the effect of "GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP," which produces a complexion equally smooth and brilliant without the slightest possibility of any bad effects. Beware of counterfeits. See that "C. C. N. CUTRANZ," Proprietor, is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists at 25 cents; three cakes 60 cents. "HILL'S INSTANTANEOUS HAIR DYE" takes rank with the famous "GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP," and may be trusted to produce a perfect and permanent color where all other dyes have disappointed the purchaser; yet it is the least expensive of them all.

THE CITY FATHERS.

A Brief but Lively Session
Last Evening.

WATER MAIN EXTENSIONS.

The South Temple Street Sidewalk—Petitions and Reports—The Sewer Bond—General.

Notwithstanding the many counter-attractions in the shape of bulletin boards, transparencies, etc., there was a prompt and full attendance of the City Councilors last evening, the only absentees being Dooly, Sharp and Smith.

PETITIONS.

Isaac Coon and James Coon, executors of the estate of Abram Coon, deceased, repeated that the deceased had occupied for the last thirty years a certain piece of property lying on the banks of the Jordan River, the title to which was vested in the city; that the deceased had paid taxes on the same for thirty years past, and they thought they were entitled to a deed for the same. They therefore asked that a deed issue to them. Referred to the city attorney.

E. Covey asked that he be allowed to connect with the water pipe of a neighbor, and extend five rods west. Referred to the committee on waterworks.

Lewis B. Rogers asked that the water-mains be extended down West Temple Street, to a point where it had been decided some time ago to take them. Referred to the committee on waterworks.

ISN'T WORTH INSURING.

Heber J. Grant & Co., through the recorder, notified the Council that the $2,000 policy carried on the Warm Springs bath house had expired, but that they would insure the building until this morning.

Mr. Sowles did not think the building was worth that much money.

Mr. Ritter wanted the communication laid on the table. So far as he was concerned, he wouldn't vote to spend one nickel on the place. The motion to lay on the table prevailed.

AFTER THE TICKET REGULATORS.

Mr. Richards, city attorney, by request, presented the following bill for an ordinance licensing sellers of theatre, concert and circus tickets:

Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City: That it shall be unlawful for any person to buy and sell theatre tickets, concert tickets, circus tickets, or any tickets for admission to any other place of amusement, without first obtaining a license so to do, which may be issued in the same manner as other licenses, for the term of one year, on payment into the city treasury of the sum of $100.

REPORTED ADVERSELY.

The committee to whom had been referred the communication of Richard Papworth, in reference to a certain piece of property claimed by him, but held by another, reported adversely. Received and filed.

THE SOUTH TEMPLE STREET SIDEWALK.

The supervisor of streets presented his estimate of the cost of laying a cement sidewalk, eight feet wide, on South Temple Street, from East Temple to I Street. He places the figure at $2,050 per linear foot, including a border of red pine wood, thus making the total cost $10,779.10, including the streets, or $9,290.60 otherwise.

Mr. Ritter thought that good brick could be laid for a far less figure, and he was in favor of this material being used.

Mr. Clark wanted to know whether this was a suitable time of the year to put down cement.

Several members thought it was as good a time as any, and the residents of South Temple were anxious that the work should be done as soon as possible. The usual notice of intention was ordered published.

THE STRAY FOUND.

M. Sheldermine, stray pound keeper, presented the annual report, showing that 12
